UPDATES

a. Project Updates

Public Works Director Egger discussed the latest development status for Harmony Villas and requested input from the City Council regarding the city's responsibility on how to proceed with the development, i.e. trees completed, grading, utility items, etc. City Council agreed on staff connecting with the homeowner's association to discuss an agreement on how to move forward.

Mr. Egger also updated on the following; MNDot is discussing the county road 42 and highway 52 study again, Xcel energy is doing heavy tree trimming along Diamond Path.

Chief of Police Dahlstrom discussed a cadet program that he would like to implement, noting he is in the process of applying for a grant for the program to assist with the costs. The program would pay people to go to school and in return guarantee them to work for the police department upon passing. Councilmember Freske suggested noting in the agreement that the officer should be expected to work a certain number of years for the Rosemount Police Department.

Community Development Director Kienberger shared the success of Rosemount's building permits for the year.
