a. Department Overview: City Administration

Rosemount City Administrator, Logan Martin, led an informative session on his many roles and duties within the City. He referred to his position as “Chief of Staff” to the City Council members and elaborated on how he serves both City Council and the community. He gave a background of his degree and his prior employment that led him here. Mr. Martin explained some of his tasks are taxes and setting budgets – he also discussed his favorite projects that have helped him make an impact.

b. Leadership Lesson

Mayor Weisensel discussed this month's leadership lesson, Ethical Leadership. Commissioners discussed “what it means to be an ethical leader” and shared their thoughts on what “the ends justify the means” signifies and to what extent. Mayor Weisensel prompted Commissioners lastly with the question for discussion, “Are you an optimist or a pessimist?”.

a. Roundtable Discussion

Youth Commission members were asked by Mayor Weisensel what developments they'd like to see within our city. Some examples Commissioners gave were a larger variety of restaurants (including both healthy & ethnic), mini golf, school improvements/updates to dated buildings/spaces and 'hang out' spots for youth.

New Business

a. Department Overview: Fire Station No. 1 Tour / Asst. Chief Behrendt

Assistant Fire Chief Tim Behrendt led an informative session on the history and future happenings of the Rosemount Fire Department. Behrendt led us on a tour of Fire Station No. 1; giving facts about the function of the building and the many different vehicles that service our City and their specific uses. Assistant Chief Behrendt also answered any questions and insight into what it's like to be a Firefighter.

b. Recruitment Strategies

Youth Commission discussed recruitment ideas. The five commissioners came up with great suggestions including; Rosemount HS "Irish Update" channel to broadcast and advertise, QR code for convenient access, social media postings for both students and parents, promoting YC as "Ambassador for Youth" to their peers. They also expressed a want for more volunteer opportunities. Staff will present these ideas at the March regular meeting for additional input from the entire commission.
