- a. Minutes of May 28, 2025 Youth Commission Meeting

Old Business

None.

New Business

- a. Speaker: Officer Katie Ruesink

Officer Katie Ruesink gave us a timeline of her involvement in law enforcement. She elaborated on her experiences and how they have shaped her career today. Ms. Ruesink encouraged face-to-face communication as a key component in being a good leader, along with resiliency. She spoke on the importance of her both showing and receiving respect and reminded commissioners to ask questions so that you can learn from others.

b. Leadership Lesson: Foundations of Leadership

Deputy Clerk Saunders led the Commissioners in a Leadership Lesson from our new workbook, Chapter 1. In this chapter, titled "Foundations of Leadership", we talked about self-leadership, self-awareness and Commissioners did an activity: Draw a "Me Tree".

c. Roundtable Discussion

Commissioners told the group what is going on in their personal lives, such as summer cabins, family reunions, volunteering, marching band practice, drivers' tests, spending time with their horse, summer jobs (some with 2–3 jobs!), starting PSEO classes and arranging college tours.

Reports

a. Youth Commissioner Reports

None.

b. Upcoming Events

Deputy Clerk Saunders reminded the Commissioners of all the fun happening in July that we'd like them to be in attendance for.

c. Next Youth Commission Meeting Date - August 27, 2025

There being no further business to come before the City Council at the regular council meeting and upon a motion by Geller and a second by Jacob the meeting was adjourned at 4:44 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
