New Business

- a. Department Overview: City Clerk

City Clerk Fasbender was the guest speaker. She introduced herself and explained her main role(s) within the City. Clerk Fasbender showed a powerpoint presentation further explaining Parliamentary Procedure and the importance behind it when in a group setting like a Commission. Mrs. Fasbender spoke specific to Robert's Rules of Order and showed Commissioners a cheat sheet of actions and what should be said to hold a successful meeting. Mayor Weisensel encouraged Commissioners to educate themselves on Robert's Rules of Order.

b. Leadership Workbook: Chapter 8; Teamwork & Collaboration

Mayor Weisensel and Deputy Clerk Saunders led Commissioners through Chapter 8 of their Leadership Workbook, titled Teamwork and Collaboration. The first activity was the "marshmallow challenge" where the Commissioners were divided into two teams and asked to construct the tallest structure using various random objects. After the timer went off, Mayor Weisensel asked each team to tell the group about what role they played in their team, and how they came to the conclusion to build what they built.

c. Youth Commission Goals

Per Commissioner Karah Mason, recommends that the Youth Commission revise to include in its 2025–2026 Goals a collaborative initiative with students of Rosemount High School to support and expand Culture Night, with the aim of increasing community engagement and promoting inclusivity.

Commissioners to vote on this motion at the next meeting.

d. Roundtable Discussion

Commissioners spoke about the happenings in their personal lives such as college tours, PSEO classes, marching band and adjusting back to school.

Reports
