PRESENTATIONS AND PROCLAMATIONS

a. MnDOT Hwy 3 Corridor Study Update

MnDOT's consultant for the study, Joe Devore with KLJ, provided a recap of the MnDOT Hwy 3 Corridor Study, with MnDOT staff also in attendance to address the Council's questions. They are reaching Phase 3 of the corridor study and finalizing recommendations. Mr. Devore noted that the input provided by the public has been beneficial to their study.

There are three main safety areas being looked at closely in Rosemount, and how to implement these changes if approved. The total for the Hwy 3 Corridor updates is $125M, with those numbers subject to change due to inflation over the next 7 years.

Councilmembers created a discussion regarding community engagement, timeframe and costs.

b. Metropolitan Council Update

Mark Jenkins, Metropolitan Council Member, introduced himself and shared his professional background. He outlined the Met Council's focus areas—Community Development, Environmental Services, and Transportation—and highlighted the various ways the Council is engaged in Rosemount.

Mr. Jenkins requested his contact information be included in the minutes if residents have further questions.
